

11 Minutes – Press Sheet

A Crime Novel of Melbourne's 1976 Great Bookie Robbery

Author: Gregory M. Carroll

Media Contact: gregory@gregorymcarroll.com | +61 3 7048 4801

Website: <https://gregorymcarroll.com>

Logline: Six men. Eleven minutes. The perfect crime – and the decade of violence that followed.

Short Synopsis:

On 21 April 1976, a crew of masked gunmen robbed Melbourne's Victoria Club in broad daylight, escaping with what would now be worth $80 million. No one was convicted and the money was never found. Within ten years, every man was dead. 11 Minutes follows the rise and fall of the crew, their families, and the city that made them, blending meticulous research with lived experience.

Key Details:

- Title: 11 Minutes – A Crime Novel of Melbourne's 1976 Great Bookie Robbery
- Series: The Eleven (Book 1)
- Genre: Australian Noir / Crime Fiction / Historical Crime
- Print ISBN (Ingram): 9781764222600 | eBook ISBN: 9781764222617
- KDP Paperback ISBN: 9781764222613 | Kindle ISBN: 9781764222624
- Length: 362 pages | Publication Date: 1 December 2025
- RRP: AU$34.99 (print), AU$11.99 (ebook)

Angles for Interview / Coverage:

- 50th anniversary of the Great Bookie Robbery (April 2026)
- Author as younger brother of one of the real men linked to the heist
- Melbourne's gangland history and the Painters & Dockers waterfront wars
- How fiction can tell emotional truths that court records and police files can't

Selected Praise:

"A quietly devastating tale of crime, loyalty, and consequence – 11 Minutes captures the uneasy truths of Melbourne's underworld." — Mark Q., ex-Melbourne bookie